

Reading Ambassador

Job Responsibilities

The role of a Reading Ambassador is to support The Reading Lead (Mrs Wallis) in helping to promote reading across the school.

As Reading Ambassadors, we agree to:

- Check that reading areas around school are kept tidy and speak to class teachers if we find that they are not.
- Make sure that books are handled respectfully.
- Support with the re-stocking of books in La Bibliothèque, including uploading new titles onto Libresoft.
- Ensure that children are using La Bibliothèque respectfully.
- Support The Reading Team in promoting Reading for Pleasure – this will include organising reading events.
- Carry out quality assurance activities, which include:
  - Checking that reading is happening, as timetabled, in every class.
  - Checking that children hear quality reading every day.
  - Checking that classroom reading areas meet school expectations.
  - Monitoring the use of Learning with Parents within our class.
- Quiz adults and children about what they are reading.
- Report any concerns to the Reading Lead.
